

Shorncliffe Arts Festival

Shorncliffe Arts Festival

Put yourself in the picture for art, craft, food, wine and all the fun of the fair.

Last Held on October 28, 2007

Next Arts Festival: - Please stay tuned for updates - date of Festival will be advised early next year.

Normally this Festival is held every other year and was due this year. However, as we had our 90th Celebrations in March - our Arts Festival plans have been postponed for next year - 2010.

In the meantime, take a look at the work we had on display and sale in 2007 - if you are interested in helping next year or running a stall please contact the P & C Association.
